CARLISLE BE WITH WISE

Ex-Secretary of Treasury Likely to Appear in the Constitutional Convention Suits.

Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., of the Un'ted States Circuit Court, has had transferred from Norfolk to this city the three suits at common law entered of the constitution.

The three cases will be argued in the State Constitution.

The three cases will be argued in the Circuit Court of the United States in this city on Monday next, zanuary 11th, only as to the questions of law inversed. In the event that the decision of the questions of law raised by the defendants be against the State and in favor of the plaintiffs, the suits will be tried on their merits and the questions of fact raised in the deciarations of the plaintiffs will then be considered.

It is of especial interest in Richmond to state that not only will Captain John S. Wise, a former Virginia towyer and politician, now resident in New York city, appear as counsel for the plaintiffs at this hearing, but it is un derstood that he will have associated with him Hon. John G. Carilsie, foimer Secretary of the Treasury, ex-Senator of the United States from Kentucky and former Speaker of the United States House of Representatives. Mr. Carlisie has a wide reputation as a constitutional lawyer of ability. Arrayed against this widely known counsel with La Atiorney-General William A. Anderson, of Virginia, and Mr. Frank W. Christian of this city, who appeared before the court a year ago in the argument of the application of certain plaintiffs seeking to enjoin the State Board of Canvasters from awarding certificates of election to congressmen chosen under the new State Constitution, then but recently ordained. The hearing promises to be the most brilliam legal battle in thic city for many years.

The THREE SUITS.

The cases in which the questions of law to be argued arise are the following suits for damages, in each of which the plaintiff claims $5.000.

Edgar Pee Lee of this city, vs. Governor A. J. Montague, John S. Barbour and forty-four other members of the recent Constitutional Convention of 10 and 1902, and against the officers of election of Jackson Ward of the city of the same members of the Constitution, dinand 1902, and against the officers of energy of the city of the new of lackson Ward of the city of Richmond.

Anthony S. Pinner vs. the Governer and the same members of the Constitutional Convention and some of the election, of the lackson of the city.

John E. Brickhouse vs. the judges of election of Huntersville Prec.net of Norfolk county, Va.

All of these anits are actions at common law for damages on the allega lon that the defendants have wrongfully deprived the plaintiffs of the two suits allego a conspiracy of the part of the Governor, the members of the Constitutional Convention and eccion officers, some or all of them, to deprive the plaintiffs of the function and eccion officers, some or all of them, to deprive the plaintiffs of the guarantees of the Federal Constitutions.

The defendants demurred to the declaration.

The defendants demurred to the declaration in each case, and have filed pl as thereto. Upon the demurrer the quest on arises whether the plaintiffs have in their declarations presented a case which extitles them to recover, even though they proved all they allege. The pleas deep the material allegations made in the declarations, and undertake to show that the defendants have not been wronged by the plaintifs, and that they have not been unlawfully or wronging deplay of the right of suffrage under the Feareral Constitution.

The State holds that the members of

of the right of suffrage under the Federal Consist of the right of suffrage under the Federal Consist of the concentration of the concentration of the concentration of the concentration of the same control of the concentration of the State, cannot be sued, suffrage clause of the Federal Constitution to the control of the rederal Constitution of the rederal Constitution for the same disparishment of the amendments, thereto there is accumulated by the fact that thousand, of the amendments, thereto there is accumulated by the fact that thousand, of the same of the control in contravention of the Federal Louist tution. There are numerous often of cissops bearing on this case, and many of these were quoted during the Constitu-tional Convention.

struction Considers Again.

The Senate Committee for Public Institutions and Education met Jeste day afternoon immediately upon adjournment of the Senate and took up the bit proposing to establish another State female normal and industrial school. The committee sat for an hour considering various phases of the bit, but at 159 rose until 50 A. M. to-day without having concluded consideration of the bit.

Senator Halsey, of Lynchburg, offered an amendment to the bit is stilling out the provision in the bill that the school when established, shall be located north of James River. He stated as a reason continuous to the continuous to the

Decide Uncle Sam Is Wrong.
The High School Literary Debating socicty has decided that the United States was not justified in recognizing the inlant republic of Fanama. Senator floar agrees what them.

A great debate was held Monday night and the projection was thoroughly discursed in all its phates. Messrs. Hutzleand Hough had the affirmative of the question, and Arcisers. Keen and Leichbyre the negative. The debaters themselves were very evenly matched. The vote, nowever, disclosed the sentiment of the young mrn. It was 22 to 2 against the government.

Now a Naval Cadet.

Senstor Henry T. Wickham, of Han-over, was not in his seat in the Senate yesterday, having gone to Annapolis, Md., where he will enter his son as a cadet at the United States Naval Academy, the young man having gotten the appoint-ment.

HARRYTUCKER ห้องของเสดงของของของของของ Treasurer Leo Wise, of the Academy of Music, told a good one last night while he was counting the money taken in at the first performance of "Iris."

"Twas when Fawcett was playing Othello," he said, "Two young ladies looked in the box office window and asked me the price of ats. "I told them, and they giggled and said "I told them, and they gigsred and said they wouldn't pay more than 25 cents to see any play."

"What is the piece?"

"Othello,"

"Who wrote it?"

"'Shakespeare.'
"'I never heard of him before; did you,
Mamie?" "'Naw,'
"'Must be a new one Is it a melod-drams or an opera?"
"'I's a tragedy; didn't you ever see a tragedy?"

"Naugh, but I saw Robert Mantell play the 'Cautious Brothers,' oncet,'

"Then they put their chewing gum back in their pretty mouths, and giggled themselves out of sight."

"That reminds me of a story I heard once in Alaska," said Manager Rex.

But the asbestos curtain came down and the light went out. tragedy?

We love to get up these mornings and sit out on the front veranda, and watch the sun come up from behind Berry's grocery store.

It's delightful to see the clear sparkle as on the grass in the tront yard, and hear the watch dog's honest bark.

These are times when we even feel a longing to swing in the hammock and smoke our of Johnnie Krugs Webs, with a bottle of George Guvernator's best at our fried chicken on tonst to wander over to the corner of Plu mand Main over to the corner of Main and Plum and ride down town on the rear platform. There is so much room on the rear platform out that far.

But we do hate to get up at 5 G. M. (good morning) to make a fire and find the stove full of snow, and the broken window panes full of frost. Wed rather stay under the comforts on our feather bed, and let the cook build the fire.

Only we haven't got any cook, because friend on the next block offe ed a dollar a month more than we were giving her, and got her.

STORIES OF TO-DAY.

OF HUMAN INTEREST;

Noah's Ark No. 2. An old lady recently pargained with a London cabman standing outside a rail-way station to take her into town, says the Ram's Horn. The sum being agreed upon, the dame returned into the station. Ind soon reappeared with two parrots in tages, which she handed up to the cabman. Again she journeyed to the platform and brought out two cats. A third irip she made, bringing back a daintily cressed for-terier, and a fourth expension was interrupted by cably exclaim, one; Beggin' your pardon, ma am, but you and that question, cabby:

Licar me, no, was the reply; "wnatever made you ask that question, cabby:

"Oh, it's all right, ma am," said Jehu, "I thought I'd ask, cos i ain't certain on as 'ow my horse can swim, and I fancied in the first time consists of pieces shough on the grass in the front yard, and hear by the look of your luggage that you the watch dog's honest bark."

Were a takin' my keb for a Noah's ark!"

Knew What He Was Doing,
The affamility of a candidate for Parliamentary honors has a great effect, and marry a vote is secured by means of it, says Tit-Bits. But it would seem that citusivenees and affability are sometimes indulged in for quite a different reason waren men a e wooing a constituency. An incident in an East End election proved this. One of the candidates was extremely gusains, and the election agent when in conversation with a keen supporter said:

"It is a graif idea, that of Mr.—re is not only not satisfied with shaking ands with the voters in the ordinary way, but whenever he meets them he gitchs both their hands and shakes them entistively."

I see, said the supporter, "but don't you think that that's rather overdoing it." Knew What He Was Doing. We so like, then, after we have eaten

"Well, it may look like that," returned the agent, "but Mr. — knows his business and he knows that so long as he noids onto both of their hands his watch is safe!" A Sly Mother.

A Sly Mother.

It is a generally accepted dea, says the iola Register, that virtue is its own reward. An occurrence of if few days are, however, has convinced one young man of iola that there is another side in the question. He is a young bachelor, who has lived in lola some years. At the time he left home his motiver gave him a new Bible, with the earnest hope that ne would read it regularly. The young man has failed in this, railing catefully and unrepentently. But now he regrets that he didn't read it "irom kiver to kivver" the hist chance he had. Almost by accident, he opened the good book the other day and found smoothly pressed in its inside pages a crisp 520 bill, which are nother doubtless placed there, and which she had been waiting all these years for him to mention having found, but the son never did.
